Gender in Education

1. In what context do you address gender related issues in your teaching?

E.g., while teaching evaluation, classroom interaction, interacting with guardians or in other contexts?

2. How do you address gender-related issues in your teaching?

E.g., in relation to textbooks, while analyzing teaching materials, during teacher training practices, in lectures, when students bring these questions up, in other ways?

3. What kind of resources or material would help you to include gender sensitivity in your teaching?

E.g. textbooks, teaching material, research articles, websites, other material?

4. What kind of knowledge on gender and education would be useful in your field of expertise and in your teaching? You can choose multiple alternatives.

- theoretical information
- empirical results
- practical exercises and methods that I can use in my teaching
- something else

If you chose 'something else', please specify

5. Should anything else that is important for your work that should be taken into consideration in constructing a website for teacher educators and teacher students?
